Faculty Positions

THE DEPARTMENT OF FAMILY MEDICINE at the Medical University of South Carolina is in the process of supplementing its faculty with several well qualified family physicians to provide patient care in the metropolitan Charleston, South Carolina area. Faculty positions are available in a variety of practice sites, including rural private practice, urban private practice and university-based ambulatory practice settings. All sites are equipped with a complete, computerized medical record that issues reminders for preventive health care. In addition to patient care, each faculty member will have a designated percentage of time for teaching medical students and residents. An attractive package of benefits with salaries comparable to those available in the best private practice settings is being offered. Interested family physicians should contact: Cleve Hutson, MD, Chairman, Department of Family Medicine, Medical University of South Carolina, 171 Ashley Avenue, Charleston, SC 29425. (803) 792-2383.

PHYSICIAN FACULTY – The Department of Family Medicine seeks board-certified family physicians for unique positions of practicing and teaching at two rural sites. These positions combine the best of small town practice and affiliation with the University Medical Center, well-known for its commitment to primary care. Send CV to: James G. Jones, MD, Chairman, Department of Family Medicine, East Carolina University School of Medicine, Brody 4N-84, Greenville, NC 27858-4354. An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. Applicants must comply with the Immigration Reform and Control Act from www.arbformmed.com at STANFORD Univ. Med. Center, on November 5, 2000.
